Handwriting practice lines consisting of three horizontal dashed lines for ascenders, a solid baseline, and three horizontal dashed lines for x-height. Below the baseline is a row of 26 circles for letter formation practice.

Handwriting practice for the word "limiting". The word is written twice on a four-line grid. The first row shows the word in a cursive script with numbered arrows indicating stroke order: 1 for the first 'l', 2 for the first 'i', 3 for the first 'm', 4 for the first 'i', 5 for the first 'n', 6 for the first 'g', 7 for the second 'l', 8 for the second 'i', 9 for the second 'm', 10 for the second 'i', 11 for the second 'n', and 12 for the second 'g'. The second row shows the word again, but with the letters written in a simple, unconnected, and somewhat irregular manner, likely for a beginner to learn the basic shapes.
