

Name: _____

Date: _____

Y2 Aut W030 – What Is a Prefix?

Down

1. To undo a knot or a bow in a string. (5 letters)
2. To not listen properly and think someone said something else. (7 letters)
3. When something is not right or rules are broken. (6 letters)
5. To say a story out loud to someone else again. (6 letters)
7. To untie your laces or open something up. (4 letters)

Across

3. To pull the metal slider down to open your coat. (5 letters)
4. To play a game or video all over again. (6 letters)
5. To try making or doing something all over again. (4 letters)
6. To pick up your pencil and write a sentence again. (7 letters)
7. To turn a key in a door so it opens. (6 letters)

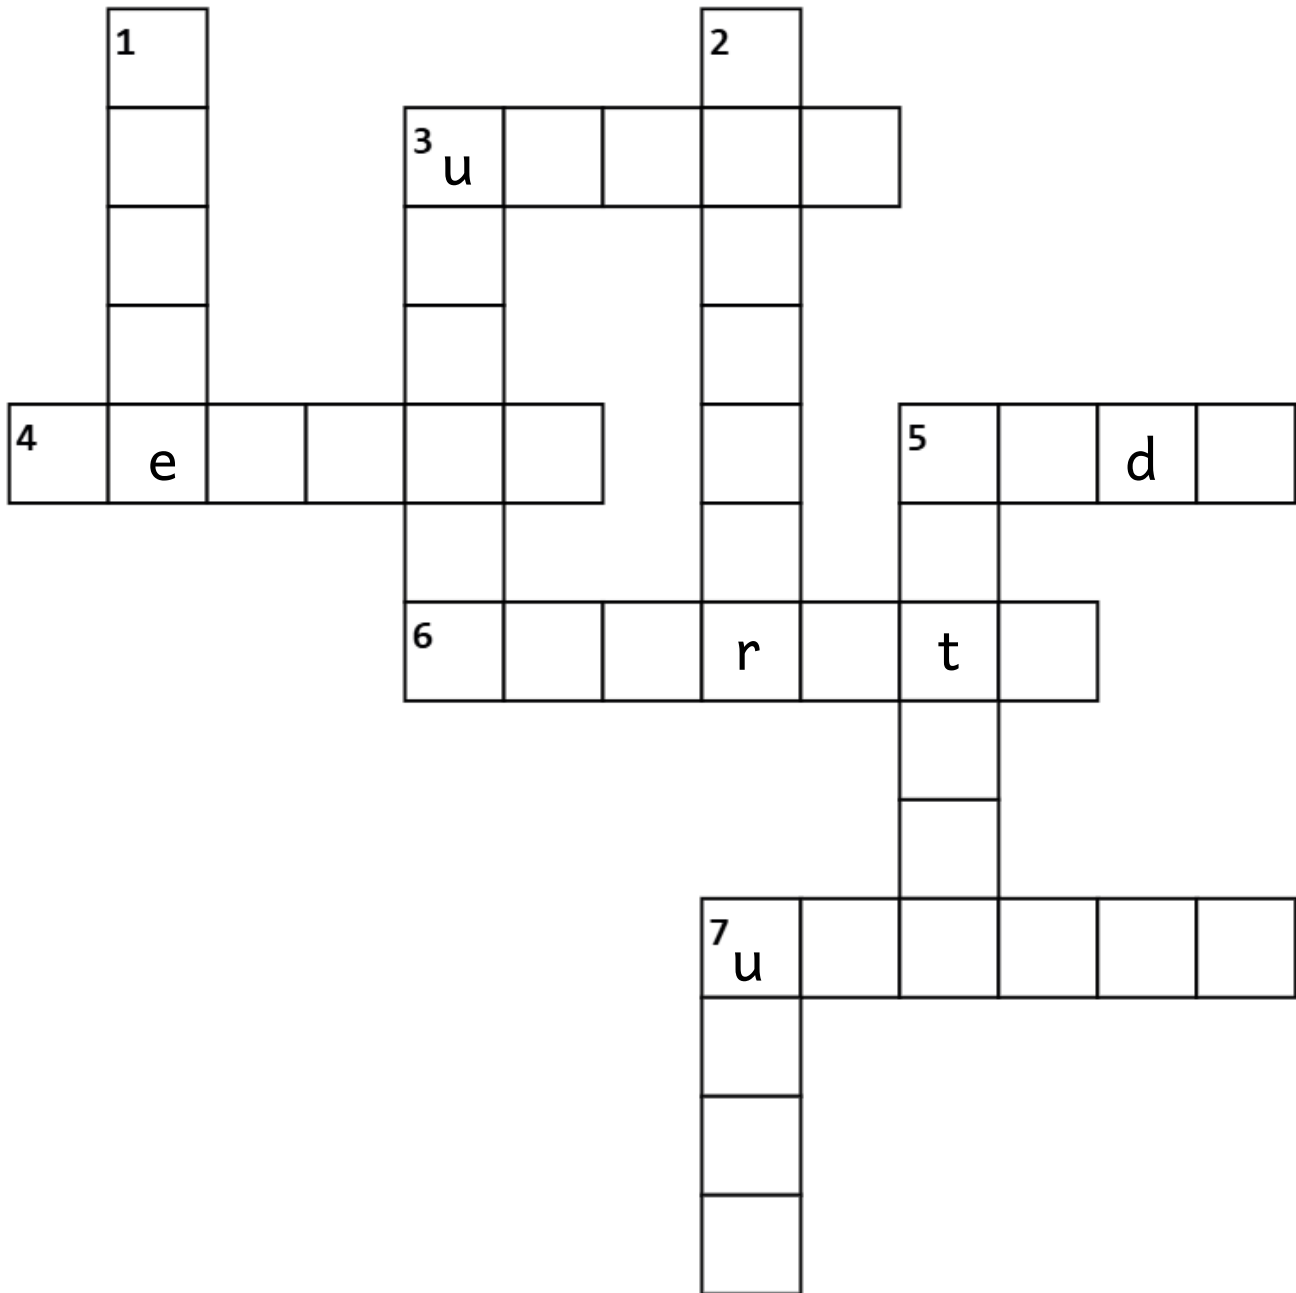

Name: _____

Date: _____

Y2 Aut W030 – What Is a Prefix?

Down

1. To undo a knot or a bow in a string. (5 letters)
2. To not listen properly and think someone said something else. (7 letters)
3. When something is not right or rules are broken. (6 letters)
5. To say a story out loud to someone else again. (6 letters)
7. To untie your laces or open something up. (4 letters)

Across

3. To pull the metal slider down to open your coat. (5 letters)
4. To play a game or video all over again. (6 letters)
5. To try making or doing something all over again. (4 letters)
6. To pick up your pencil and write a sentence again. (7 letters)
7. To turn a key in a door so it opens. (6 letters)

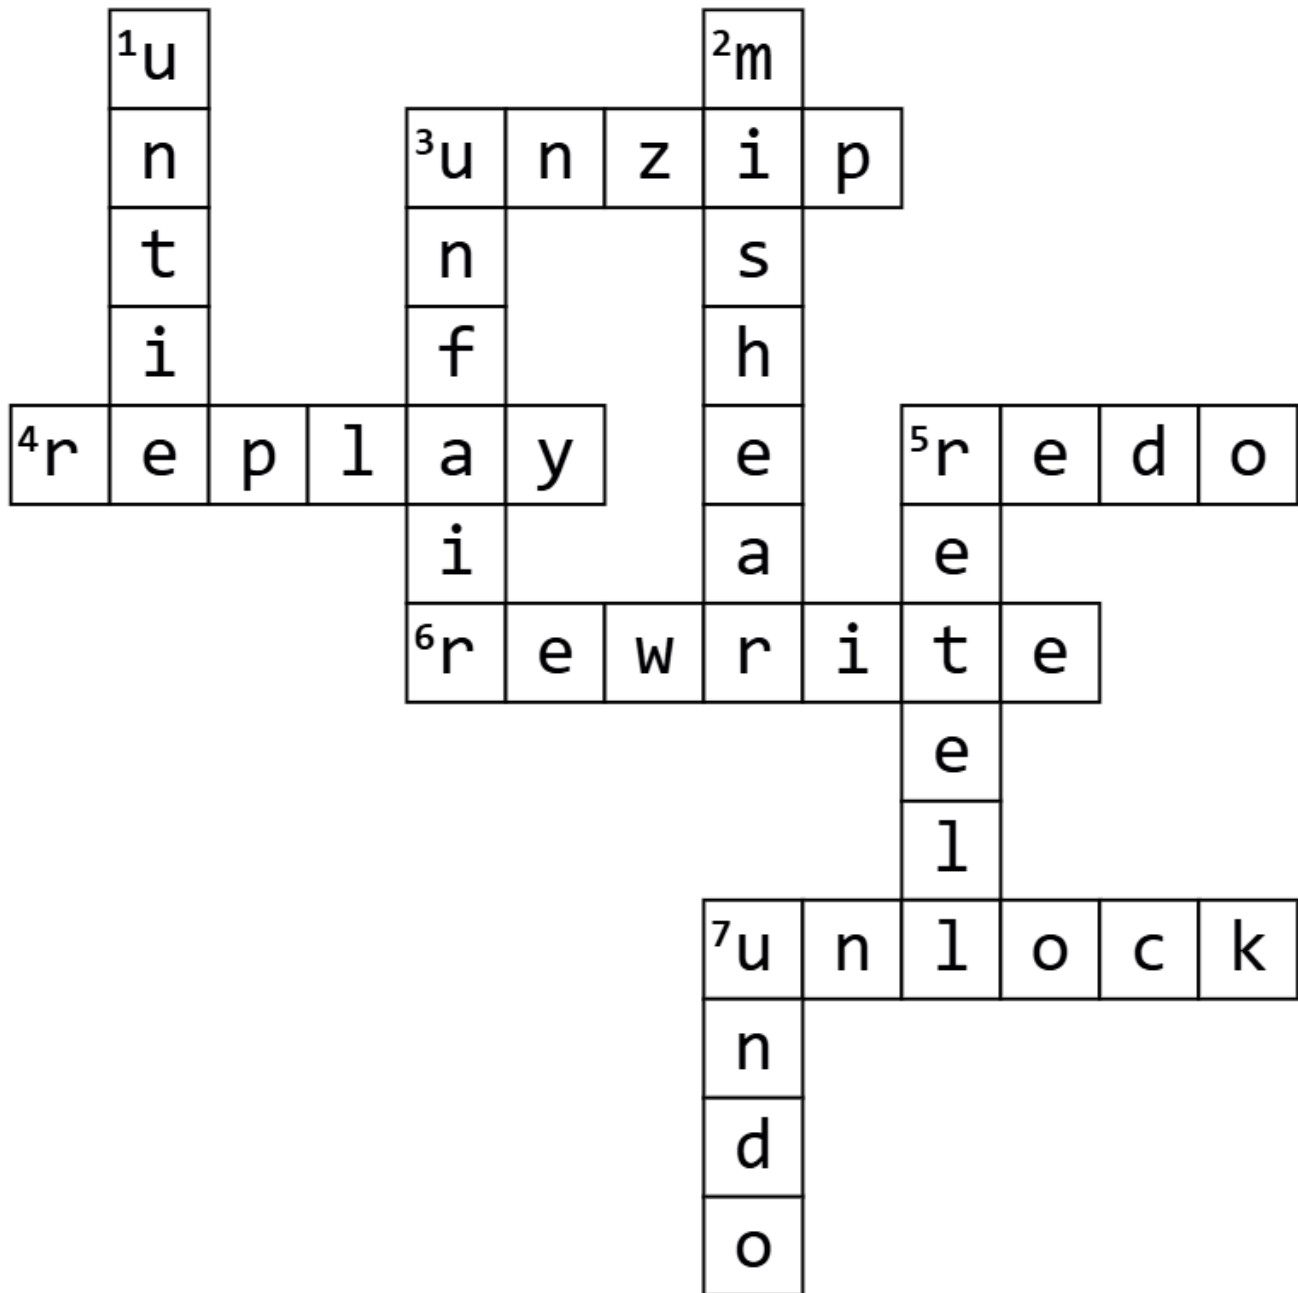

Name: _____

Date: _____

Y2 Aut W030 – What Is a Prefix?

Down

1. To undo a knot or a bow in a string. (5 letters)
2. To not listen properly and think someone said something else. (7 letters)
3. When something is not right or rules are broken. (6 letters)
5. To say a story out loud to someone else again. (6 letters)
7. To untie your laces or open something up. (4 letters)

Across

3. To pull the metal slider down to open your coat. (5 letters)
4. To play a game or video all over again. (6 letters)
5. To try making or doing something all over again. (4 letters)
6. To pick up your pencil and write a sentence again. (7 letters)
7. To turn a key in a door so it opens. (6 letters)

