

Name: _____

Date: _____

Y6 Spr W060 – maxi, magn & mini

Down

1. A tiny, pocket-sized version of something that is usually much larger. (9 letters)
2. Being incredibly kind, generous, and forgiving to someone you beat in a game. (11 letters)
3. The absolute lowest number or smallest amount required. (7 letters)
4. How much larger a lens makes an object look compared to real life. (13 letters)
8. Making something as big, full, or as great as it can possibly be. (8 letters)
10. The greatest or highest possible amount of something. (7 letters)

Across

4. The massive size, scale, or ultimate importance of a big event. (9 letters)
5. A shiny metallic object that pulls iron or steel things toward it. (6 letters)
6. Using a curved glass lens to make a tiny bug look huge. (7 letters)
7. Making something as small, neat, or as quiet as you possibly can. (8 letters)
9. The absolute highest number or largest amount that is allowed. (7 letters)
11. A judge who listens to small cases in a local courtroom. (10 letters)

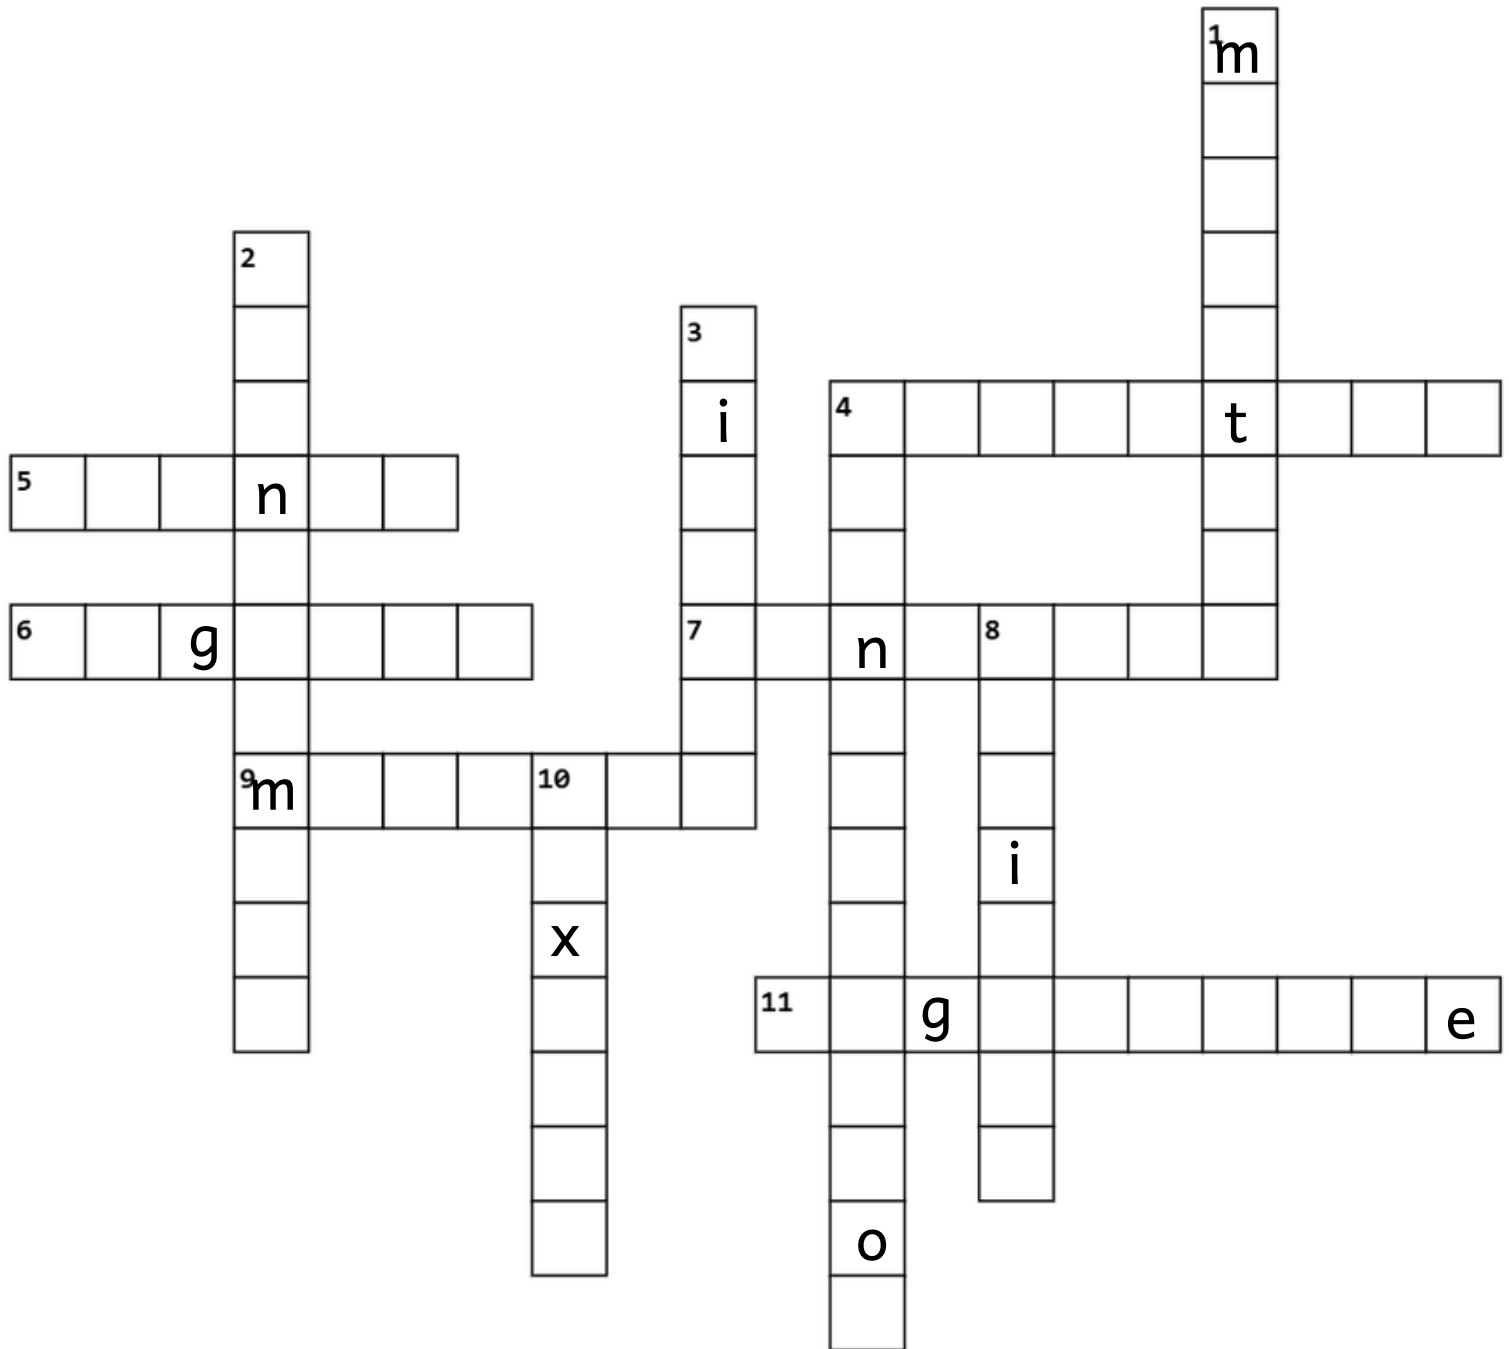

Name: _____

Date: _____

Y6 Spr W060 – maxi, magn & mini

Down

1. A tiny, pocket-sized version of something that is usually much larger. (9 letters)
2. Being incredibly kind, generous, and forgiving to someone you beat in a game. (11 letters)
3. The absolute lowest number or smallest amount required. (7 letters)
4. How much larger a lens makes an object look compared to real life. (13 letters)
8. Making something as big, full, or as great as it can possibly be. (8 letters)
10. The greatest or highest possible amount of something. (7 letters)

Across

4. The massive size, scale, or ultimate importance of a big event. (9 letters)
5. A shiny metallic object that pulls iron or steel things toward it. (6 letters)
6. Using a curved glass lens to make a tiny bug look huge. (7 letters)
7. Making something as small, neat, or as quiet as you possibly can. (8 letters)
9. The absolute highest number or largest amount that is allowed. (7 letters)
11. A judge who listens to small cases in a local courtroom. (10 letters)

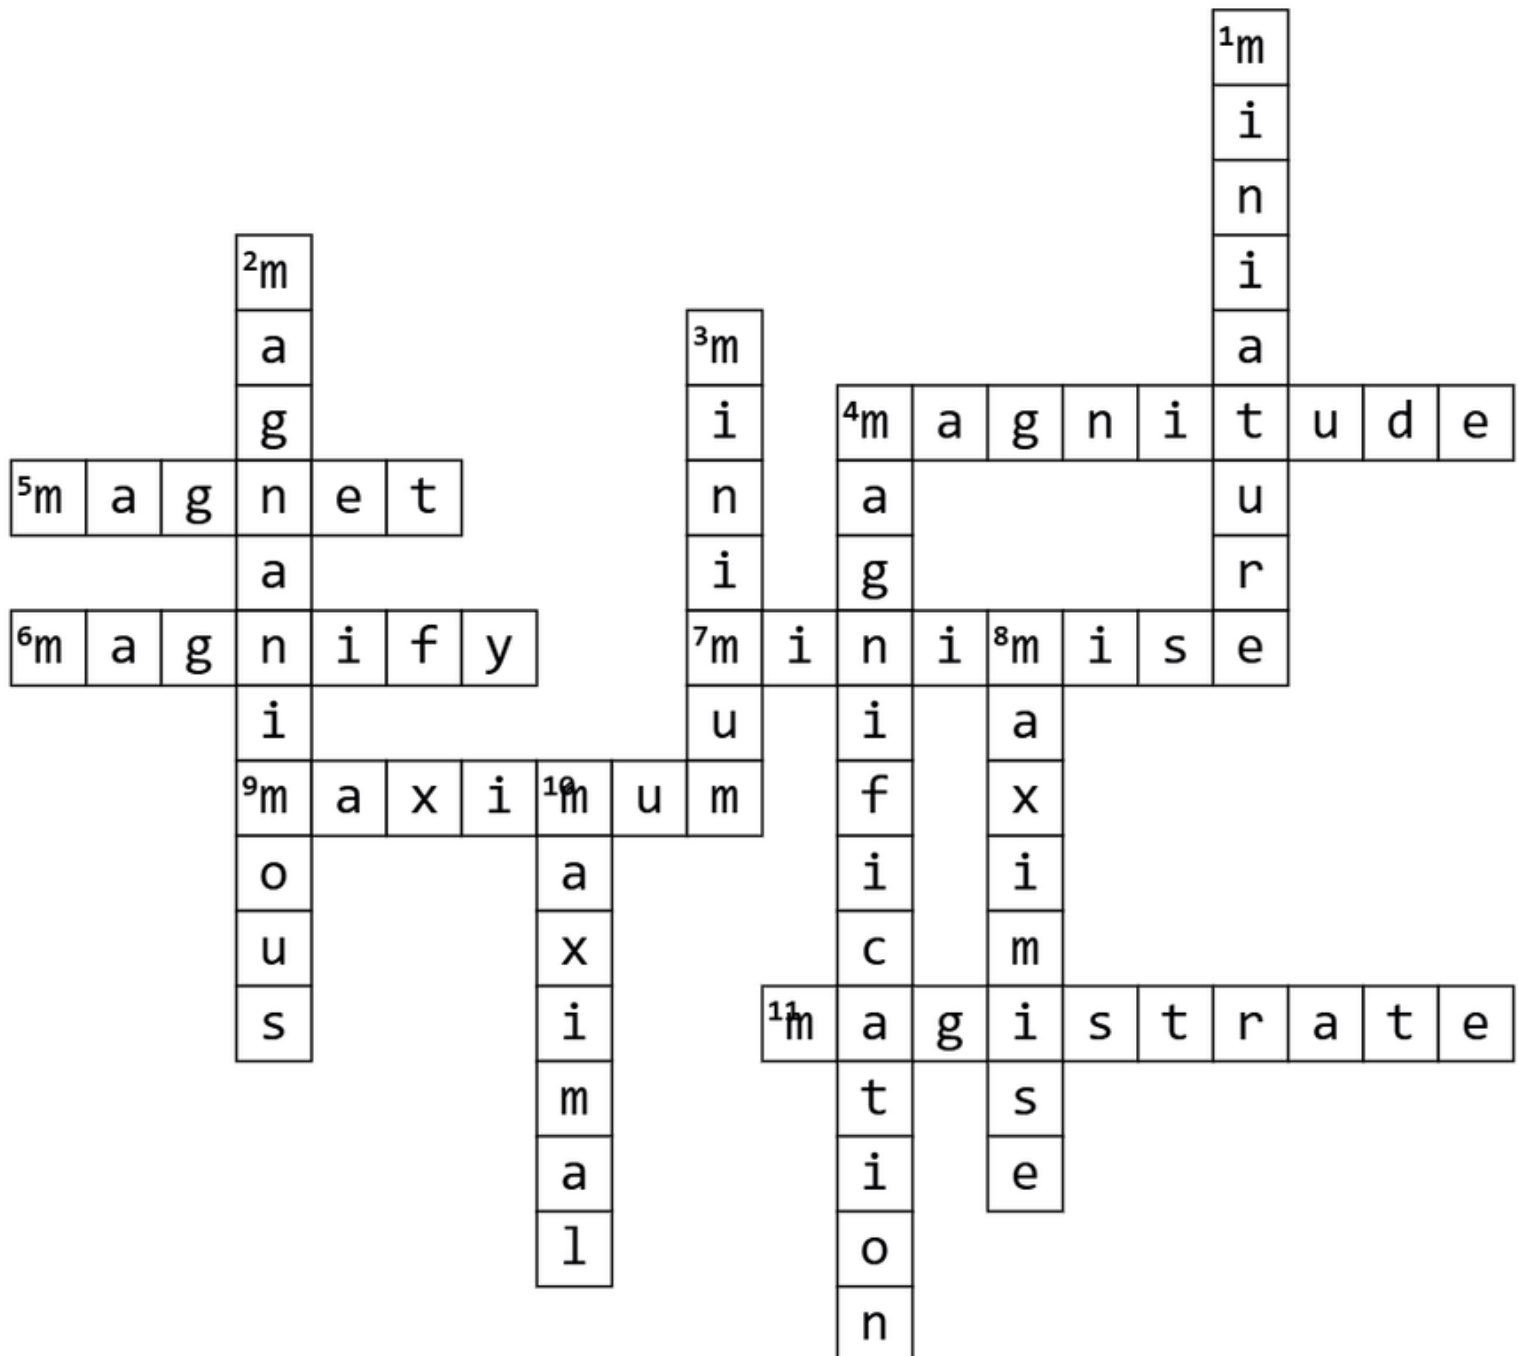

Name: _____

Date: _____

Y6 Spr W060 – maxi, magn & mini

Down

1. A tiny, pocket-sized version of something that is usually much larger. (9 letters)
2. Being incredibly kind, generous, and forgiving to someone you beat in a game. (11 letters)
3. The absolute lowest number or smallest amount required. (7 letters)
4. How much larger a lens makes an object look compared to real life. (13 letters)
8. Making something as big, full, or as great as it can possibly be. (8 letters)
10. The greatest or highest possible amount of something. (7 letters)

Across

4. The massive size, scale, or ultimate importance of a big event. (9 letters)
5. A shiny metallic object that pulls iron or steel things toward it. (6 letters)
6. Using a curved glass lens to make a tiny bug look huge. (7 letters)
7. Making something as small, neat, or as quiet as you possibly can. (8 letters)
9. The absolute highest number or largest amount that is allowed. (7 letters)
11. A judge who listens to small cases in a local courtroom. (10 letters)

