

Name: _____

Date: _____

T2AW1 - The /i/ sound spelt -y at the end of words

Down

1. To give something a go. (3 letters)
2. Where you see the sun and the clouds. (3 letters)
3. Feeling a bit nervous around new people. (3 letters)
5. To answer a letter or a question. (5 letters)
7. To move through the air like a bird. (3 letters)
8. "That toy belongs to me, it is ____." (2 letters)

Across

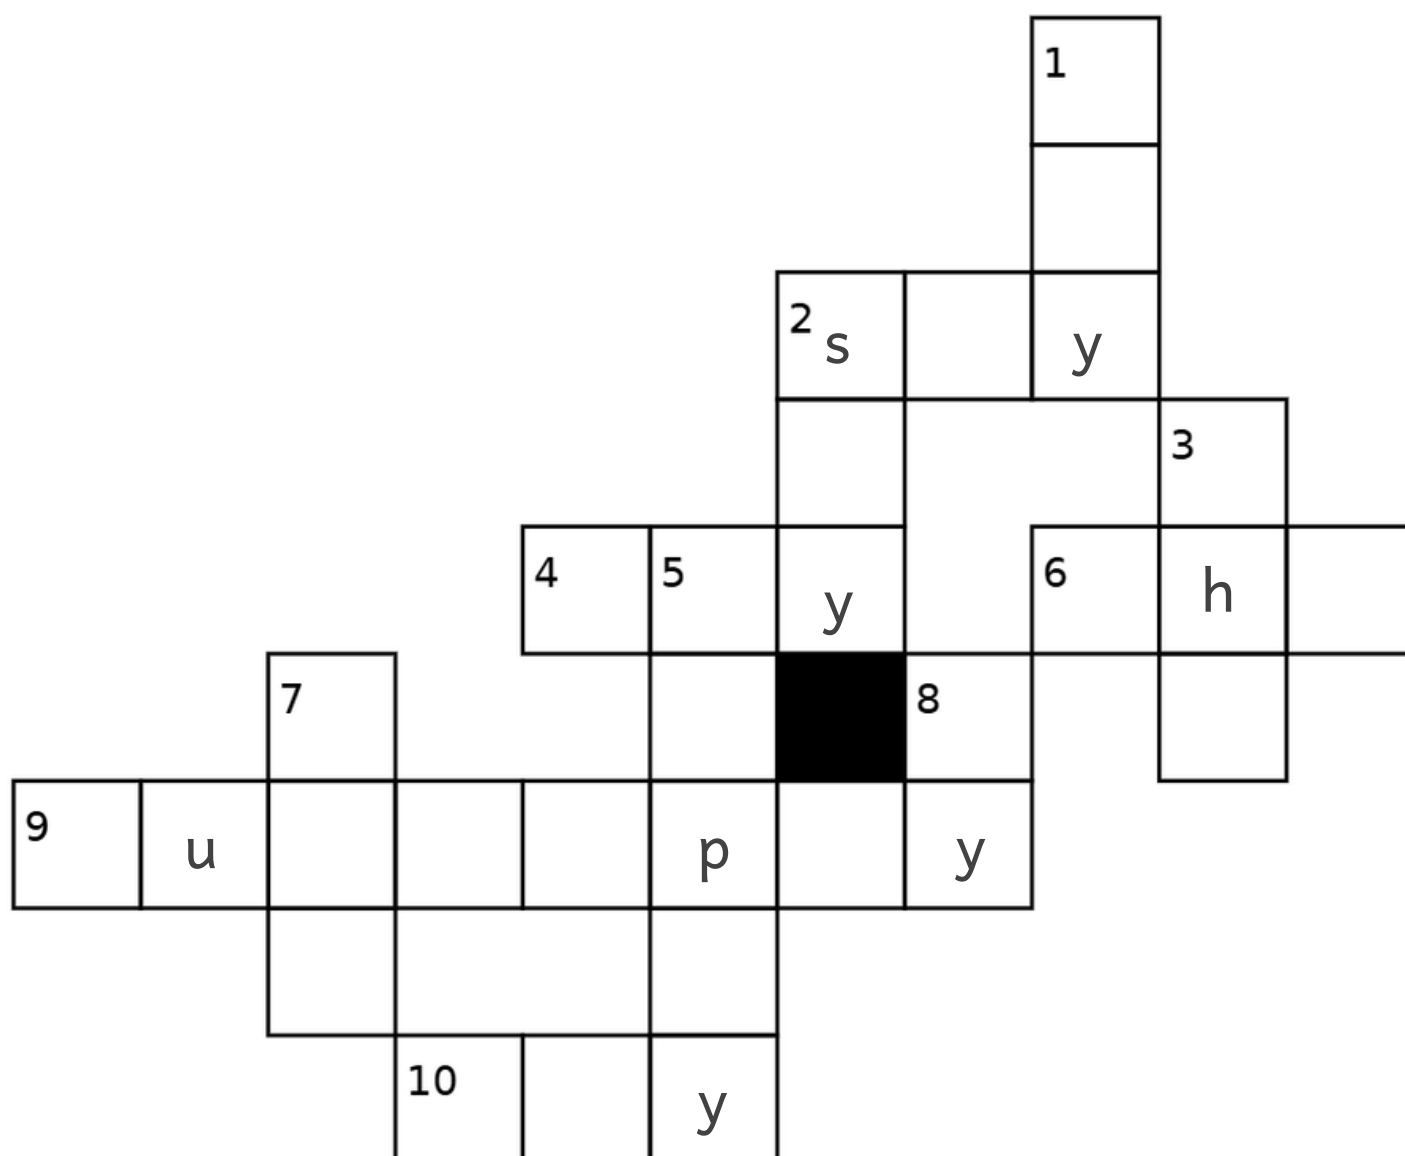

2. Tricky or cheeky, like a fox. (3 letters)
4. What you do when you are very sad. (3 letters)
6. A word used to ask a question. (3 letters)
9. In maths, to use the "times" sign (x). (8 letters)
10. The opposite of wet. (3 letters)

Name: _____

Date: _____

T2AW1 - The /i/ sound spelt -y at the end of words

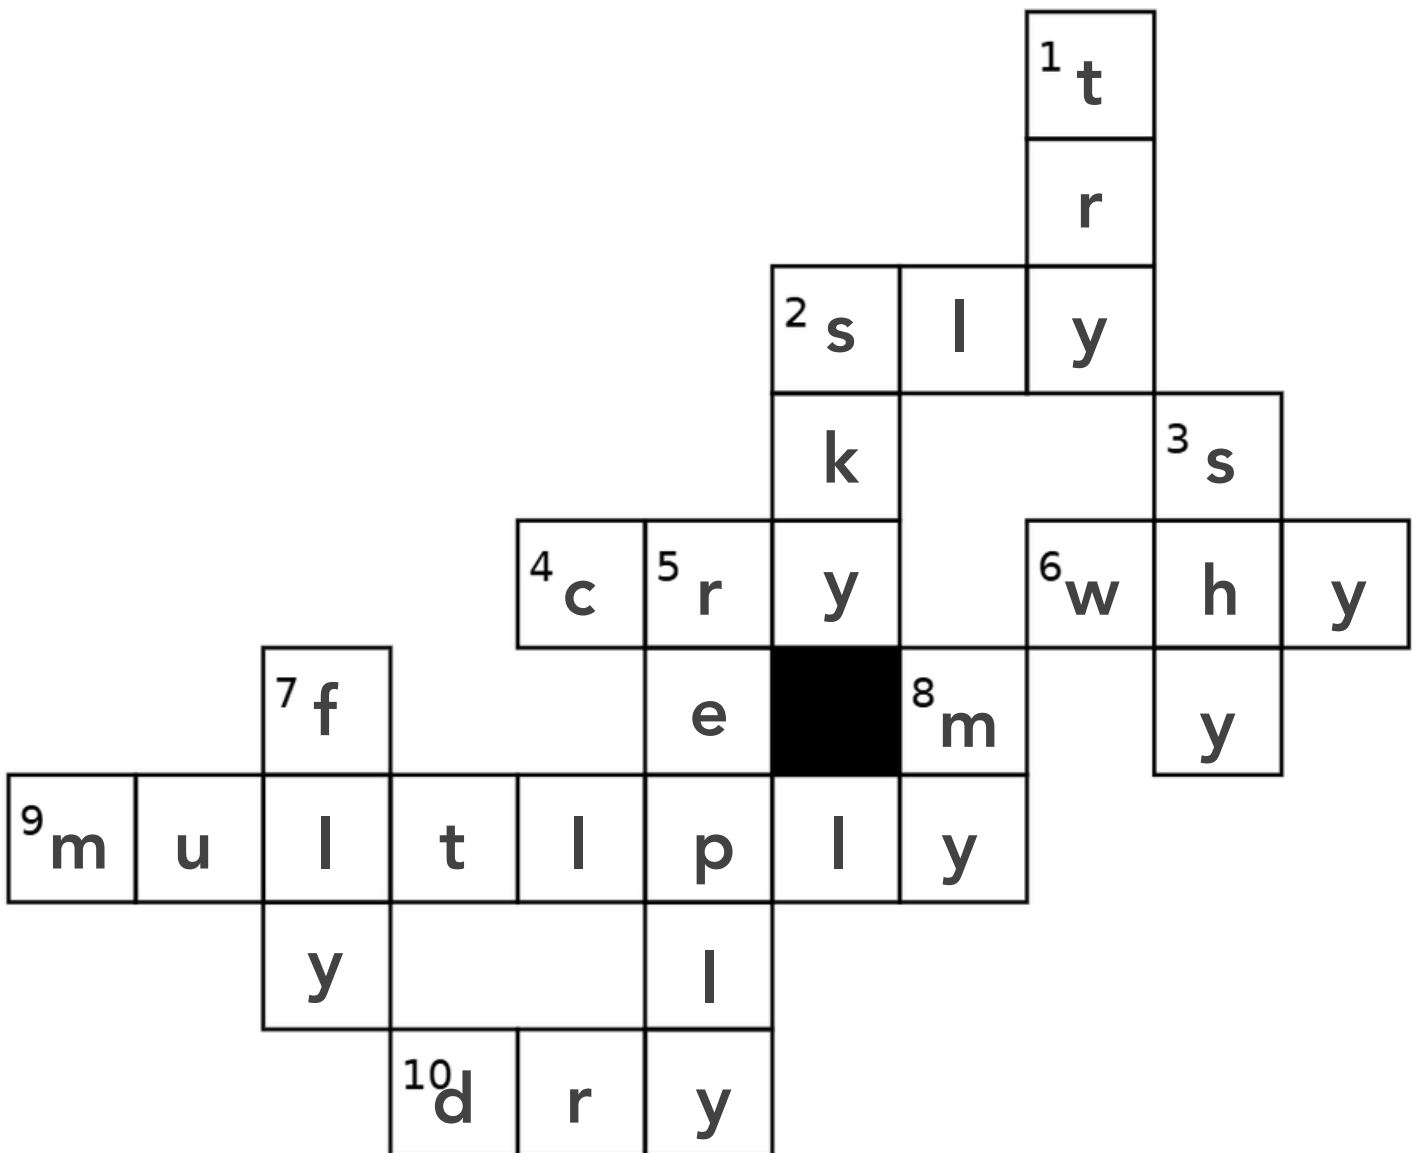

Down

1. To give something a go. (3 letters)
2. Where you see the sun and the clouds. (3 letters)
3. Feeling a bit nervous around new people. (3 letters)
5. To answer a letter or a question. (5 letters)
7. To move through the air like a bird. (3 letters)
8. "That toy belongs to me, it is ____." (2 letters)

Across

2. Tricky or cheeky, like a fox. (3 letters)
4. What you do when you are very sad. (3 letters)
6. A word used to ask a question. (3 letters)
9. In maths, to use the "times" sign (x). (8 letters)
10. The opposite of wet. (3 letters)

T2AW1 - The /i/ sound spelt -y at the end of words

Down

1. To give something a go. (3 letters)
2. Where you see the sun and the clouds. (3 letters)
3. Feeling a bit nervous around new people. (3 letters)
5. To answer a letter or a question. (5 letters)
7. To move through the air like a bird. (3 letters)
8. "That toy belongs to me, it is ____." (2 letters)

Across

2. Tricky or cheeky, like a fox. (3 letters)
4. What you do when you are very sad. (3 letters)
6. A word used to ask a question. (3 letters)
9. In maths, to use the "times" sign (x). (8 letters)
10. The opposite of wet. (3 letters)