

Name: _____

Date: _____

T1BW5 - Adverbs with the suffix -ly exceptions & consolidation.

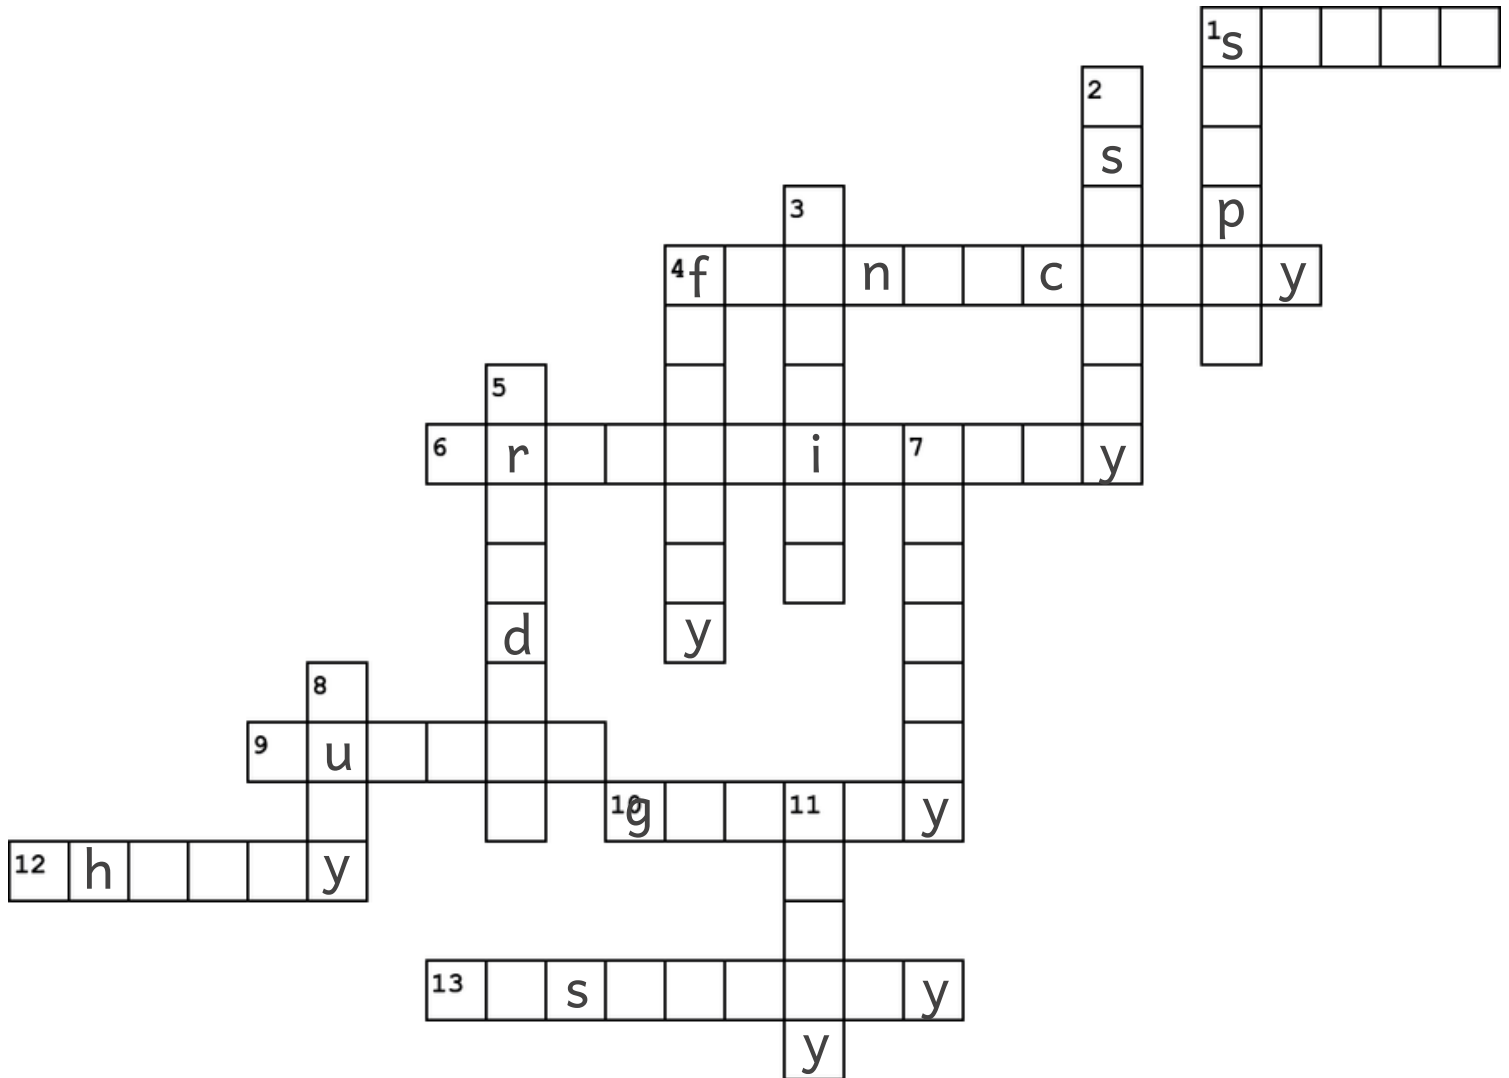

Down

1. Doing something in a way that is very easy or plain. (6 letters)
2. Something that happens most of the time. (7 letters)
3. Doing something with a cheerful heart and a smile. (7 letters)
4. At last! Something that happens at the very end. (7 letters)
5. Wanting much more than your fair share of something. (8 letters)
7. Doing something in a cross and huffy way. (7 letters)
8. Doing something at the proper time or in the right way. (4 letters)
11. Another word for "really" or "honestly." (5 letters)

Across

1. A word used to show that you feel unhappy about something. (5 letters)
4. Moving in a very fast and worried way because you are in a rush. (11 letters)
6. Acting in a big, over-the-top way to be exciting. (12 letters)
9. Not boasting or showing off about how good you are. (6 letters)
10. Using a soft touch so that you don't hurt anyone. (6 letters)
12. Completely or entirely; the whole thing. (6 letters)
13. Explaining the most important and simple part of a story. (9 letters)

T1BW5 - Adverbs with the suffix -ly exceptions & consolidation.

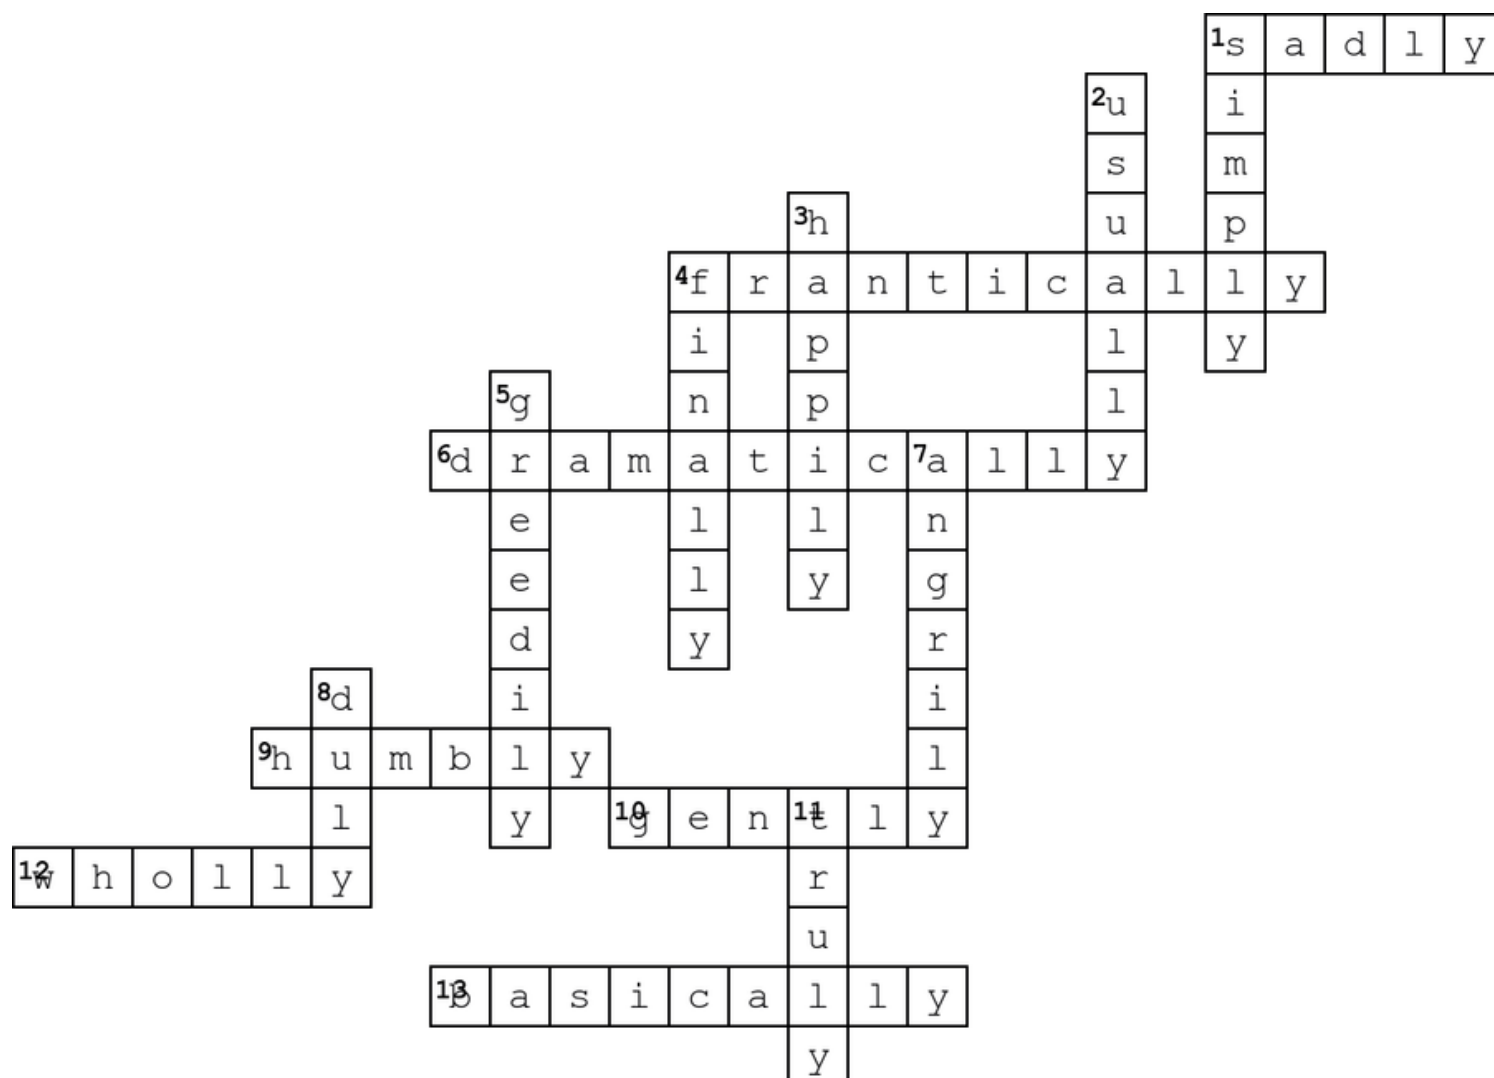

Down

1. Doing something in a way that is very easy or plain. (6 letters)
2. Something that happens most of the time. (7 letters)
3. Doing something with a cheerful heart and a smile. (7 letters)
4. At last! Something that happens at the very end. (7 letters)
5. Wanting much more than your fair share of something. (8 letters)
7. Doing something in a cross and huffy way. (7 letters)
8. Doing something at the proper time or in the right way. (4 letters)
11. Another word for "really" or "honestly." (5 letters)

Across

1. A word used to show that you feel unhappy about something. (5 letters)
4. Moving in a very fast and worried way because you are in a rush. (11 letters)
6. Acting in a big, over-the-top way to be exciting. (12 letters)
9. Not boasting or showing off about how good you are. (6 letters)
10. Using a soft touch so that you don't hurt anyone. (6 letters)
12. Completely or entirely; the whole thing. (6 letters)
13. Explaining the most important and simple part of a story. (9 letters)

T1BW5 - Adverbs with the suffix -ly exceptions & consolidation.

Down

1. Doing something in a way that is very easy or plain. (6 letters)
2. Something that happens most of the time. (7 letters)
3. Doing something with a cheerful heart and a smile. (7 letters)
4. At last! Something that happens at the very end. (7 letters)
5. Wanting much more than your fair share of something. (8 letters)
7. Doing something in a cross and huffy way. (7 letters)
8. Doing something at the proper time or in the right way. (4 letters)
11. Another word for "really" or "honestly." (5 letters)

Across

1. A word used to show that you feel unhappy about something. (5 letters)
4. Moving in a very fast and worried way because you are in a rush. (11 letters)
6. Acting in a big, over-the-top way to be exciting. (12 letters)
9. Not boasting or showing off about how good you are. (6 letters)
10. Using a soft touch so that you don't hurt anyone. (6 letters)
12. Completely or entirely; the whole thing. (6 letters)
13. Explaining the most important and simple part of a story. (9 letters)