

Name: _____

Date: _____

T1AW2 - Synonyms 2

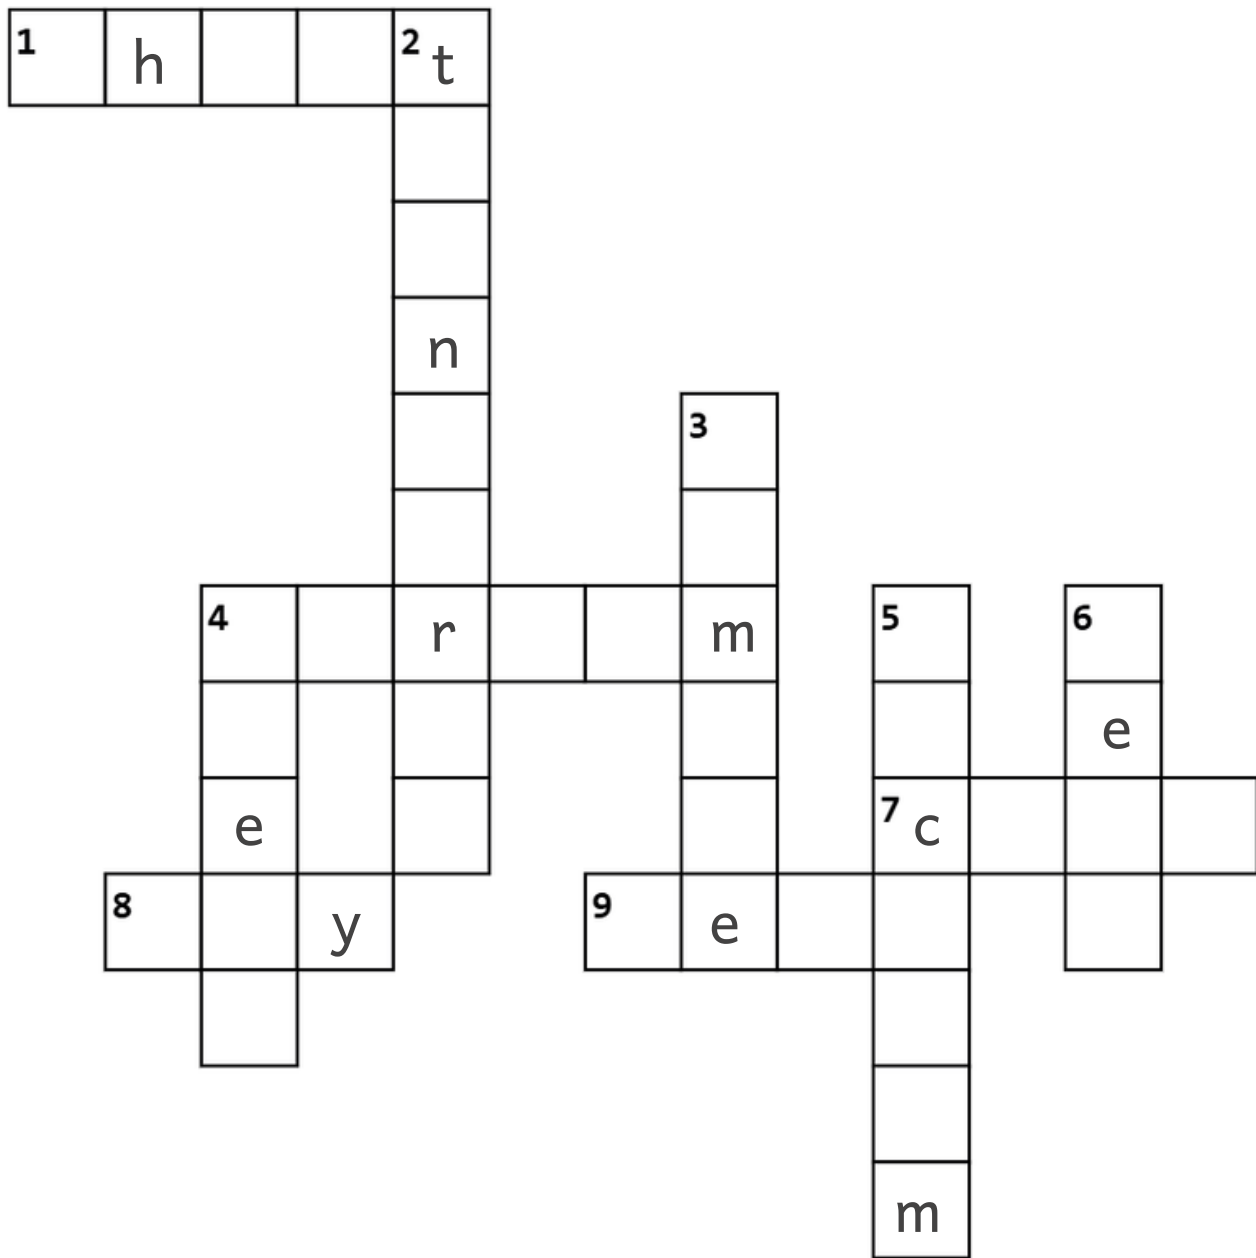

Down

2. When someone spoke in a very loud, booming voice. (9 letters)
3. To speak so quietly that people can't hear you properly. (6 letters)
4. To use your voice to talk. (5 letters)
5. To say something loud and clear. (7 letters)
6. To communicate information to someone. (4 letters)

Across

1. To use a loud voice so someone far away can hear you. (5 letters)
4. To make a loud noise perhaps when scared or excited. (6 letters)
7. To say something to get someone attention. (4 letters)
8. To speak words to another person. (3 letters)
9. To make a very loud, sharp noise with your voice. (4 letters)

T1AW2 - Synonyms 2

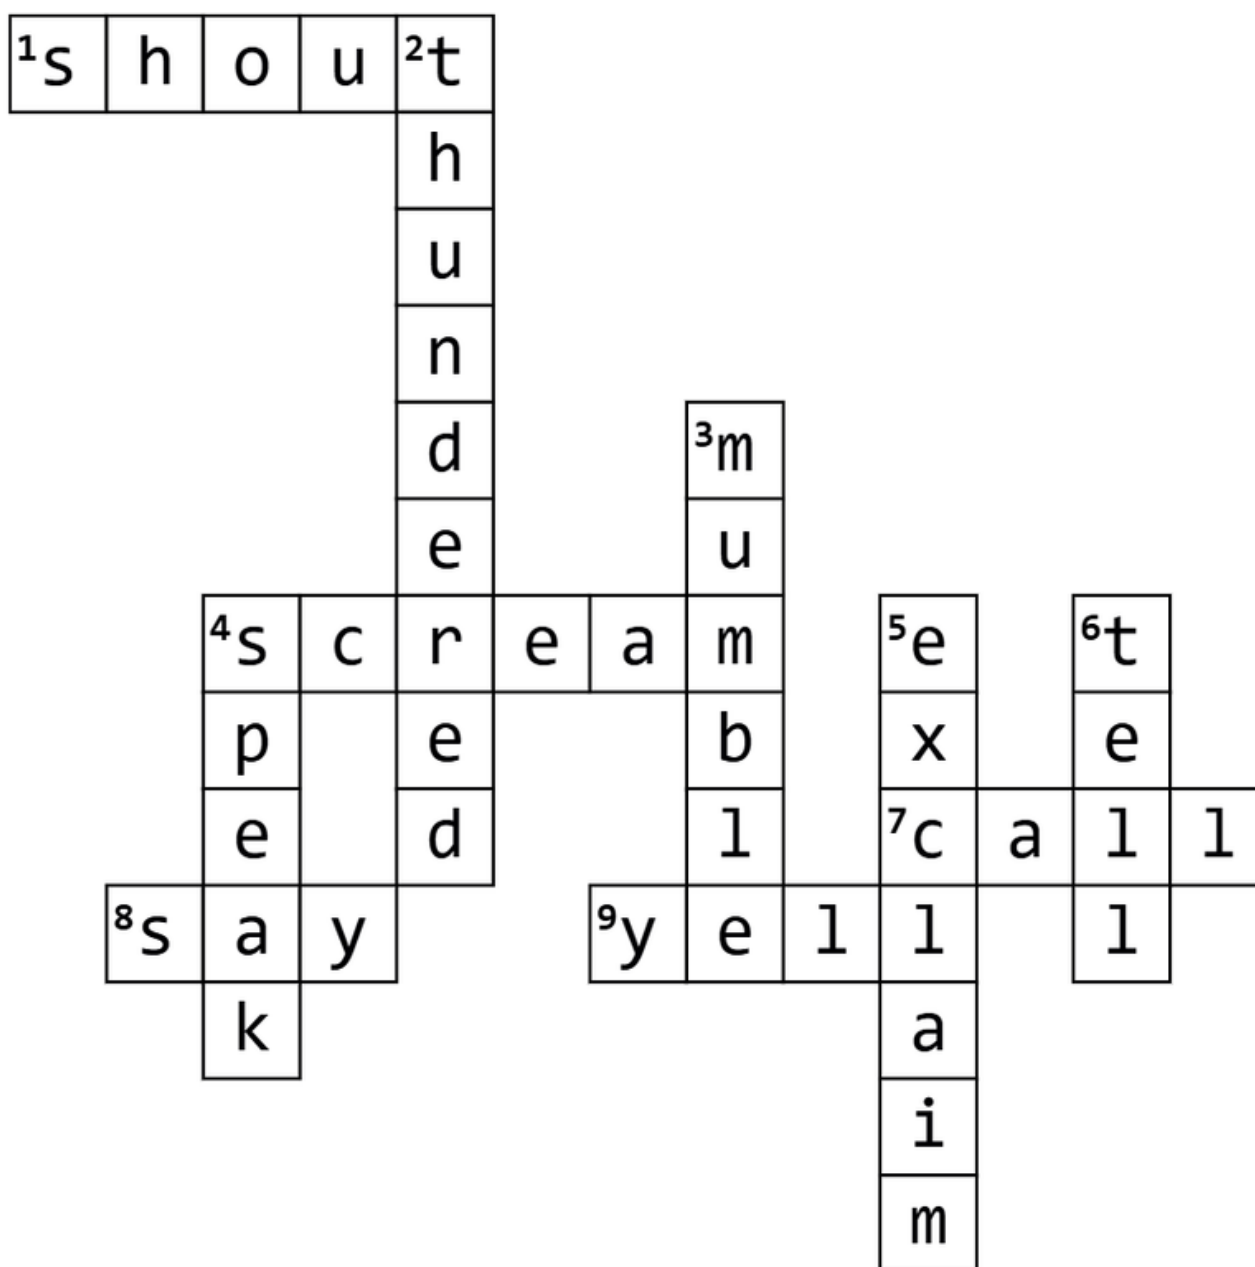

Down

2. When someone spoke in a very loud, booming voice. (9 letters)
3. To speak so quietly that people can't hear you properly. (6 letters)
4. To use your voice to talk. (5 letters)
5. To say something loud and clear. (7 letters)
6. To communicate information to someone. (4 letters)

Across

1. To use a loud voice so someone far away can hear you. (5 letters)
4. To make a loud noise perhaps when scared or excited. (6 letters)
7. To say something to get someone attention. (4 letters)
8. To speak words to another person. (3 letters)
9. To make a very loud, sharp noise with your voice. (4 letters)

T1AW2 – Synonyms 2

Down

2. When someone spoke in a very loud, booming voice. (9 letters)
3. To speak so quietly that people can't hear you properly. (6 letters)
4. To use your voice to talk. (5 letters)
5. To say something loud and clear. (7 letters)
6. To communicate information to someone. (4 letters)

Across

1. To use a loud voice so someone far away can hear you. (5 letters)
4. To make a loud noise perhaps when scared or excited. (6 letters)
7. To say something to get someone attention. (4 letters)
8. To speak words to another person. (3 letters)
9. To make a very loud, sharp noise with your voice. (4 letters)