

Name: _____

Date: _____

T1AW5 - Word families – equ, ex & extra

Down

1. To breathe air out of your mouth or nose. (6 letters)
3. When two things are the same distance away from a point. (11 letters)
5. Something that is very special and not normal at all. (14 letters)
6. A big word for getting rid of something completely. (11 letters)
7. Something that is extra and not really needed. (10 letters)
8. When two things are exactly the same size or value. (5 letters)

Across

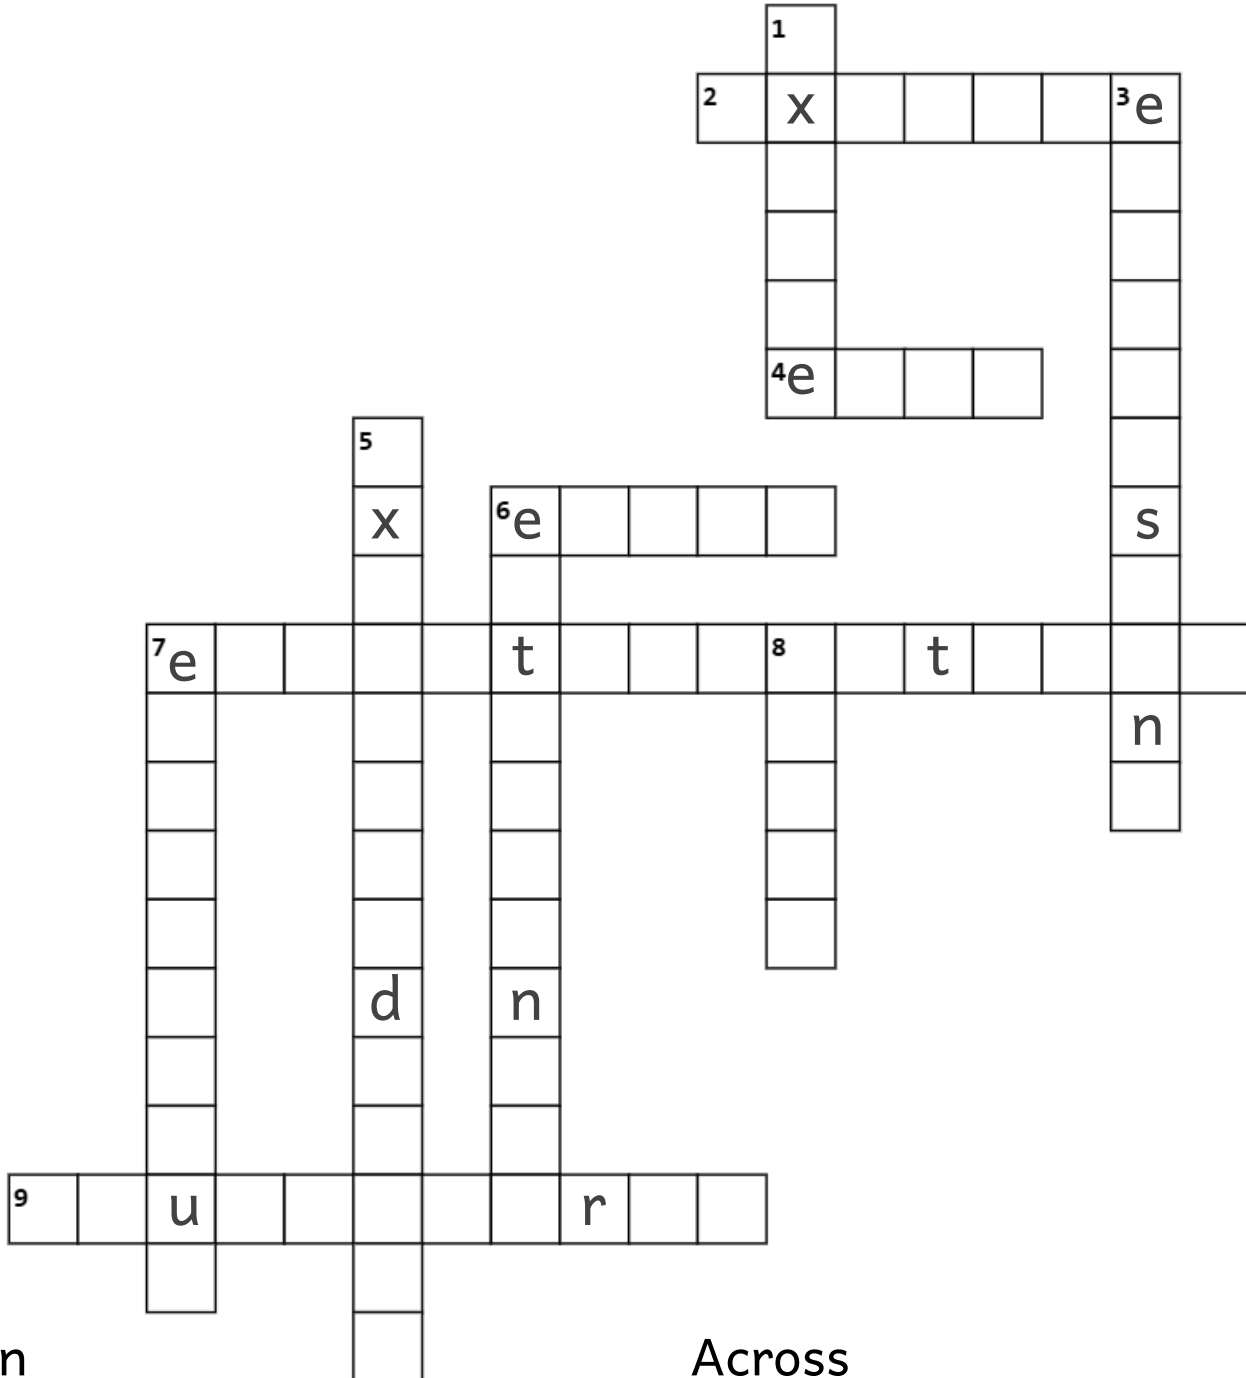

2. To leave someone or something out of a group. (7 letters)
4. The door you use to go out of a building. (4 letters)
6. Having more of something than you actually need. (5 letters)
7. A creature from another planet; an alien. (16 letters)
9. A triangle where all three sides are the same length. (11 letters)

Name: _____

Date: _____

T1AW5 - Word families – equ, ex & extra

Down

1. To breathe air out of your mouth or nose. (6 letters)
3. When two things are the same distance away from a point. (11 letters)
5. Something that is very special and not normal at all. (14 letters)
6. A big word for getting rid of something completely. (11 letters)
7. Something that is extra and not really needed. (10 letters)
8. When two things are exactly the same size or value. (5 letters)

Across

2. To leave someone or something out of a group. (7 letters)
4. The door you use to go out of a building. (4 letters)
6. Having more of something than you actually need. (5 letters)
7. A creature from another planet; an alien. (16 letters)
9. A triangle where all three sides are the same length. (11 letters)

