

Name: _____

Date: _____

T3BW5 - Word families -ver & verb

Down

2. To try and ruin a system or a set of rules. (7 letters)
3. One type of a story, game, or film. (7 letters)
5. When a loud noise echoes through a place. (11 letters)
8. Using spoken words rather than writing. (6 letters)
10. To check and prove that something is true. (6 letters)

Across

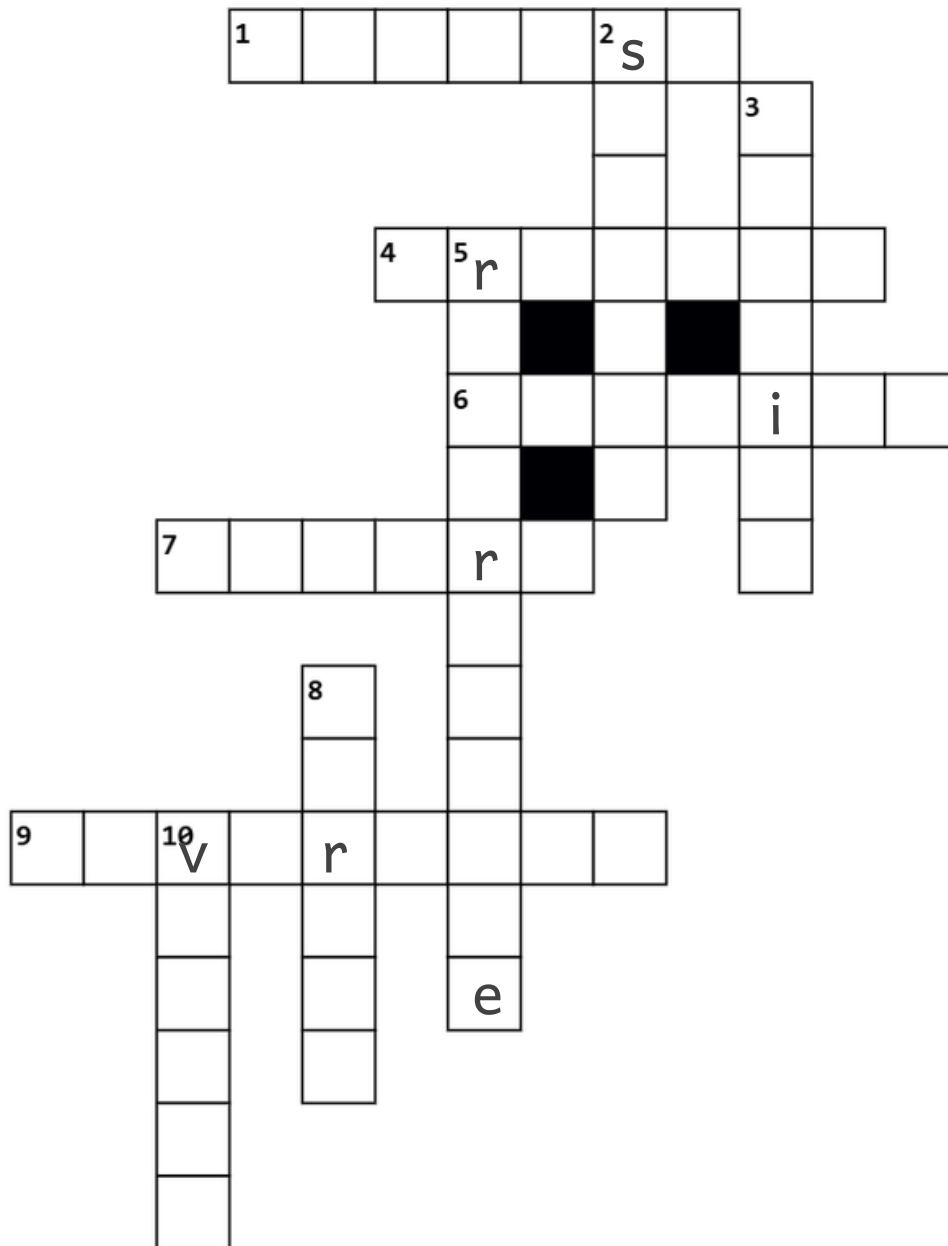

1. Using way too many words to say something. (7 letters)
4. A short, famous saying that gives advice. (7 letters)
6. The decision made at the end of a court trial. (7 letters)
7. A word that describes how an action is done. (6 letters)
9. An enemy or someone you are playing against. (9 letters)

Name: _____

Date: _____

T3BW5 - Word families -ver & verb

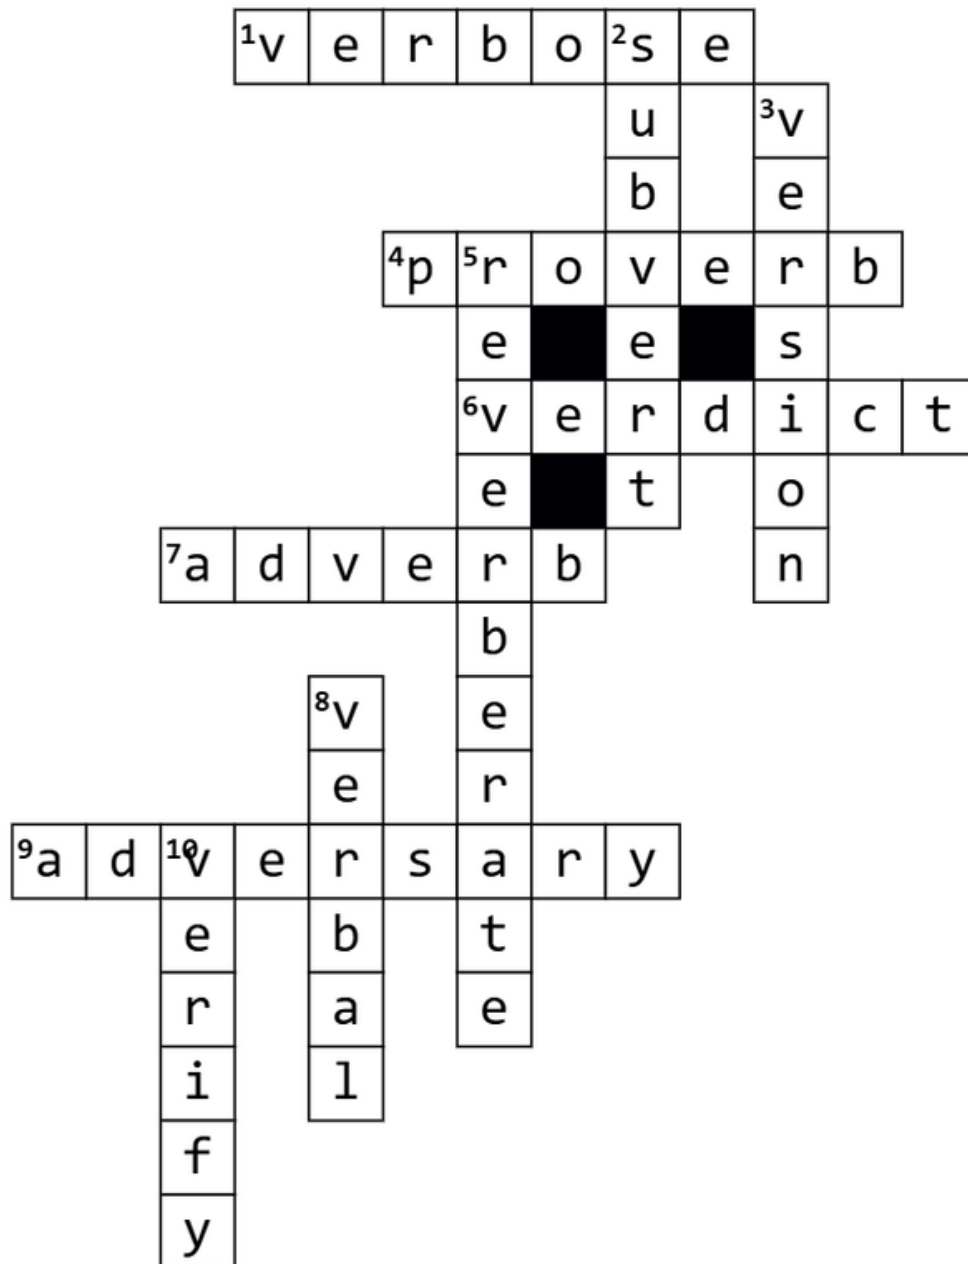

Down

2. To try and ruin a system or a set of rules. (7 letters)
3. One type of a story, game, or film. (7 letters)
5. When a loud noise echoes through a place. (11 letters)
8. Using spoken words rather than writing. (6 letters)
10. To check and prove that something is true. (6 letters)

Across

1. Using way too many words to say something. (7 letters)
4. A short, famous saying that gives advice. (7 letters)
6. The decision made at the end of a court trial. (7 letters)
7. A word that describes how an action is done. (6 letters)
9. An enemy or someone you are playing against. (9 letters)

T3BW5 - Word families -ver & verb

Down

2. To try and ruin a system or a set of rules. (7 letters)
3. One type of a story, game, or film. (7 letters)
5. When a loud noise echoes through a place. (11 letters)
8. Using spoken words rather than writing. (6 letters)
10. To check and prove that something is true. (6 letters)

Across

1. Using way too many words to say something. (7 letters)
4. A short, famous saying that gives advice. (7 letters)
6. The decision made at the end of a court trial. (7 letters)
7. A word that describes how an action is done. (6 letters)
9. An enemy or someone you are playing against. (9 letters)